SUBJECT: General Andras Zako and the League of Hungarian Veterans

REFERENCE: Memorandum for the Record, "Interview with Mr. Ladislav Farago", dated 8 February 1961, signed by Brigadier General [illegible] John S. Ackerman

1. The resistance group headed by General Zako, entitled "Magyar Harcosok Nemzeti Szovetsege" (MHNSz or League of Hungarian Veterans), has been brought to the attention of this agency on numerous occasions during the past five years and is known to be engaged in widespread marketing of a dubious intelligence product to a large number of Western intelligence services. General Zako and his supporters have consistently attempted, under various guises, to enlist financial and political support from numerous government agencies, both in the United States and abroad.

2. Attached for your information is a copy of a brief study of the MHNSz. We would appreciate any further information concerning the MHNSz, its personnel and their activities which may come to your attention.
